Presented by:

Tisha Gieser, City Clerk

Gieser led the Board through a training presentation and an interactive and educational mock TAB meeting.

REPORTS

b) Staff Report

Valdriz shared that June is Ride Transit Month and encouraged members to use transit if an option.

Valdriz provided a preview of the July TAB meeting, stating that the board will review the transit level of service standards portion of the Concurrency Update, and that the Board would see the proposed updates to the Transportation Element and Mobility Action Plan. These updates are intended to incorporate all feedback heard from the TAB on the Concurrency Update and to take care of minor housekeeping items to bring the documents up to date.

Valdriz shared that member Micah Zeitz-Chua has resigned from the TAB, and thanked Micah for his many years of service to the community.
